

Health Professionals and Support Services Award

The industry fund for the people who care

Health Professionals and Support Services Award

When does this award come into effect?

The Health Professionals and Support Services Award is effective from 1 January 2010.

Who does this award apply to?

This Award covers minimum employment conditions that employers of Health Professionals and Support Staff throughout Australia must offer their employees. This includes enterprises that employ:

- Pharmacists
- Physiotherapists
- Chiropractors
- Osteopaths
- Podiatrists
- Dental Therapists
- Myotherapists, Homeopaths, Naturopaths, Acupuncturists and Aromatherapists
- Speech Pathologists and Audiologists
- Psychologists, Counsellors, Welfare and Youth Workers.

For a complete listing of occupations covered by the new Award, you can view the full Award at healthsuper.com.au/employers/awards

What are your super obligations?

- Subject to more exemptions, legislation dictates that employees have the right to choose their own super fund.
- If an employee does not choose a super fund, one of the funds listed in the applicable Award must be used.

Therefore, if an employee does not choose a super fund, you are required to pay their super contributions into one of the offered default funds such as Health Super. Note that super contributions for all eligible employees are compulsory.
